

St. Andrews performs at White House

short piece in honor of the First Family, "Fanfare for the White House."

The Concert Choir of St. Andrew's School in Middletown recently performed at the White House. Sopranos are: Grace Awantang, Margaret Hoffecker, Virginia Mann, Searcy Milam, Kristina Romaine, and Meaghan Rathvon. The alto singers include Emma Budwig, Amanda Purcell, Frances Symes, and Emily Zazulia. Tenors are: Andrew Carroll, Peyton Coles, John Collins, and Chris Kovachev. John Allen, Walton Dumas, Rob Previti, John Slattery, and Steven Wu fill the bass section. Choirmaster Marc Cheban and Headmaster Tad Roach accompanied the group. Cheban, choirmaster at St. Andrew's since 1974, wrote a